Insperity Invitational Launches Unique Interactive Golf App

The Insperity Invitational has teamed up with Steve Elkington and Secret Golf to take the fan experience to a new level at this year’s tournament.

The award-winning tournament kicked off its 15th anniversary celebrations by unveiling the Insperity Interactive Golf App.

“We are continuously seeking innovative ways to deliver a world-class experience for our fan base,” said Jay Mincks, Executive Vice President, Sales & Marketing, Insperity. “Insperity Interactive Golf is a game changer. It brings the spectator inside the ropes and into the minds of a Tour professional while standing over a shot on the Tournament course in an effort to better understand what they are thinking before addressing the ball, while also providing all of the relevant tournament information our fans need in the palm of their hand.”

The App includes detailed course strategy at The Woodlands Country Club Tournament Course from Steve Elkington - a winner of 10 PGA TOUR events that includes two Players Championships and the 1995 PGA Championship.

“We are excited to partner with Insperity on this new venture. The app was built from the ground up with the spectator in mind, to take them inside the ropes for the first time. Fans will now have a lot of the same information that a Tour player has,” Elkington, the co-founder of Secret Golf said.

Developed in partnership with Best Approach and StrackaLine, the App includes a GPS-enabled yardage guide with superb graphics and flyovers by Best Approach, Inc. as well as an innovative Putt Predictor from StrackaLine, Inc., allowing fans both at the event and at home, to see which way and how balls will move on a green before professionals make a putting stroke. Daily pairings, contests and spectator information along with push notifications from sponsors can also be found in this innovative and exciting new approach to watching professional golf.

Insperity Invitational and SUCCESS to Deliver Thrilling Golf Experience for Kids with a Disability

PGA TOUR Champions players will team up with the SUCCESS Golf Program (Students Undertaking Challenging Courses Ensuring Development of Sportsmanship and Skill) to deliver a thrilling golf experience for a group of Houston children with a disability on Tuesday.

The kids will play a portable nine-hole outdoor golf course that will be set up on the driving range at The Woodlands Country Club Tournament Course at 10 a.m. while interacting with PGA TOUR Champions professionals.

SUCCESS Golf, part of the Be An Angel Foundation (www.beanangel.org), is designed to help children with special needs develop fine motor skills and muscle control as they focus on learning golf. The program focuses on teaching the game of a lifetime to children who would not otherwise be able to participate in a sport or hobby. Early training in the game increases the chances that once these children with multiple impairments become adults, they will have a lifelong activity to participate in and enjoy.

Annika Sorenstam will Tee it Up in 3M Greats of Golf

Annika Sorenstam will become the first woman to tee it up in the 3M Greats of Golf competition at the Insperity Invitational presented by UnitedHealthcare on May 5, 2018.

The World Golf Hall of Fame member will play with Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player in the 18-hole exhibition.

“This is the first time I will have the opportunity to play in the same group with Jack and Gary, so I cannot wait to get to The Woodlands and have some fun with these men who were among my golfing heroes,” said Annika Sorenstam. “It is a tremendous honor to be included in this prestigious group of 12 players. This doesn’t only promise to create special memories for the spectators, but it will be a day I will cherish for the rest of my life as well.”

One of the most successful women ever to play professional golf, Annika racked up 72 LPGA victories, including 10 major championships and was the LPGA TOUR player of the year eight times before retiring in 2008.

She is also no stranger to playing against the men in Texas. It was 15 years ago when she captivated the golf world as the first woman since 1945 to play in a PGA Tour event at The Colonial.

Annika, the Golden Bear and Black Knight will play a scramble format against three other teams composed of Tom Weiskopf, David Graham and Tony Jacklin; Dave Stockton, Larry Nelson and Hale Irwin; along with Fuzzy Zoeller, Charles Coody and Bill Rogers.
